Finally the program formally came to an end with the declaration of the Chairman Mr. Ammar Bahadur Rawal, Campus Chief who was also very happy to be the part of the program.

DAY-II

3.1.3 Club Formation

In this session, the following 5 clubs were formulated among the participant students of Lamki Multiple on the basis of different thematic areas: (Appendix-G)

4. Methodology

The program was inaugurated formally with the valuable presence of Chairperson, chief guest, special guests, keynote speaker, program facilitator and participants. There was a short keynote speech by the guests about the significance of the program. Then, it was followed by the presentation. There was a digital presentation and the facilitator made his presentation more interactive as effectively as it was possible. The participants were provided with a notebook and a ball pen to keep important points. Moreover, there was also a remark speech as a part of effective and interactive program and finally there was a club formation session before its end. And there were at least five clubs to be formed after having the participants filled and submitted the forms provided during the session.

5. Conclusion and Recommendation

The program was found to be quite effective and fruitful as it was related to a genuine global issues and it also let the message spread about creating the world of 3ZERO; zero carbon emission, zero poverty and zero unemployment. Basically, these are the burning issues that the world has recently been facing. These issues should be prioritized and included in government policies thereby creating a safer, cleaner, better and more sustainable planet in the days to come. Thus, considering the conclusion, some recommendations can be made in to the following points:

- Introduction of better government policy
- Improved health education and employment
- Reduce, reuse, repaired, recycle and sustainable development policy
- National level initiative to food security
- Strengthening the governance and role of law
- Effective initiative to anti-poverty program
- Switch to electric vehicles.
- Revitalizing the economic
- Consolidating peace and security
- Better policy to population control
